

The investigative proposal

Read the case again, together come up with an working hypothesis for an investigative proposal that will be leading in the Deltora case. Consider the following factors:

- Factors that influence the research proposal:
 - How do we answer: Who, What, Where, When and Why?
 - What sources/ data do we need?
 - Where are possible sources?

- Factors and effects of the research:
 - Whom are we writing to?
 - What impact is this story going to have, and on whom?
 - Who could possibly be agitated by this research?
 - Who could possibly be agitated with the publication?
